INVITATION

The Society of Animal Physiologists of India invites you to its Annual Conference, SAPICON-2018 on "AUGMENTATION OF ANIMAL PRODUCTIVITY UNDER CHANGING SOCIO-ECONOMIC SCENARIO" to be held at ICAR-National Dairy Research Institute, Karnal on 27th - 28th November, 2018.

ABOUT THE VENUE

Named after Danveer Karan of Mahabharata, Karnal is a famous city of Haryana located at 250 m above the mean sea level. Domestic & international flights to & from IGI Airport, Delhi and International airport, Chandigarh are available. Karnal is located at a distance of 130 km from Delhi or Chandigarh and well connected by the bus and train services.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

India has achieved the distinction of being largest milk producer in the world due to consistent efforts in upgradation of the germplasm and innovative tools in reproductive management and feeding. During the last decade commercial dairy farms are coming up in large number while rearing of animals by farmers has decreased. This has affected the socio-economic status of the marginal and landless farmers. Climate change is another important factor which has impacted environment, social and economic issues of the world. It has become an important area of concern for India to ensure food and nutritional security. This conference will provide a platform to the scientists, academicians, technologists and industrialists to share their knowledge and experience on socio-economic issues vis-à-vis animal productivity in order to enhance farmers income.
